

THIRD DISTRICT.

Harrison county.—William H. Pope, of Marshall Harrison county, was born in Wilkes county, Georgia, February 15, 1847, and came to Texas in 1858, settling in Harrison county. A member of Captain Dave Terry's Scouts the last two years of the war, served in Louisiana and Arkansas; was County Attorney, appointed by County Court in 1870, and elected to same office in 1876 without opposition, and again in 1878 over a Republican candidate; served as District Attorney in 1871. Elected to the Senate as the Democratic nominee November 7, 1882. Term expires November, 1884.